PYTHIAN SISTERS' MEETING.

Members of the Pythian Sisterhood of the Paris lodge, are requested to be present at the Knights of Pythias Hall to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, January 14, at two o'clock. Candidates for initiation and officers to be installed are also urged to be present.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN REPORTS $800 IN.

Mrs. James Duncan Bell, as chairman of the Red Cross drive, reports collections of about $800. This is the last week of the drive. All representatives who have either money or stamps out, please report to the chairman not later than Wednesday or Thursday, as final results must be in at headquarters. The amount collected this time almost doubled any other drive of similar nature.

SOME SERVICE

A letter from our Millersburg correspondent, mailed in Millersburg last Wednesday afternoon, containing matter intended for publication in our Friday issue, is still wandering around in space somewhere. It has never been received here. Some mail service for a distance of eight miles! We say so!

ATTENTION, UNIFORM RANK

Regular meeting of A. J. Lovely Company No. 34, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Wednesday evening, January 14, at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance. A full attendance is desired.

FRENCH "WAR ORPHAN BABY" FUND.

During the past year a total of $7,263.50 was contributed from Paris and Bourbon county to the French War Orphan Baby Fund, as shown by the recent report of Mr. Wallace W. Mitchell, of Paris, treasurer of the fund. Mrs. Arthur B. Hancock, of Paris, was Chairman of the Board.

The fund composed an annual gift from the members of $35.50 each, which went as their contribution toward the support of a French "war orphan." Each contribution of $35.50 brought a letter of thanks and a photograph from the "war orphan" thus adopted.

REPORTS LOSS OF $700 DIAMOND RING.

Mrs. William Farris, residing on South Main street, reported Saturday to the police department the loss of a diamond ring, valued at $700. The family were at breakfast Saturday morning, when it is supposed the thief, evidently familiar with the locality and the daily routine of the family, entered the home and made away with the ring. Mrs. Farris has a party suspected, and the police are working on this as a clue, in hopes of making an arrest of the guilty party. This is the third case of diamond ring robberies reported to the police in a few weeks.

NOTES OF TRAVELING MEN IN NEWS.

The "Sample Case" department of Sunday's Lexington Herald has the following regarding well-known Paris traveling men:

"Clarence Fugazzi, the man who put the 'crack' in crackers for the Streitman Biscuit Company, Cincinnati, says he certainly misses his competitor, Ben 'Uneda,' now 'Notions' Downey, since he quit selling crackers. However, Ben says he will sure make it hot for some of his other competitors.

"Colonel Bill Maupin, one of David Ades' high class salesmen, has been rejoicing this week over the marriage of his son, W. L. Maupin, Jr., to Miss Anna Leeds, of Paris. Colonel Bill said he has always wanted a girl in his family.

"Fred Bassett, popular salesman of the Power Grocery Company, of Paris, specialty man in laughs and entertainments, got off a good one at the Credit Men's Banquet held at the Phoenix Hotel, Monday night of last week, when he said that all real estate owners of Lexington who had not raised their rents in the last two years evening at 8 o'clock in the telephone booth of the Union Station."

—Miss Mary Bacon Harrison has returned to her home in Lexington from a visit to Mrs. Arthur B. Hancock.

—Mrs. W. H. Renick, Mrs. Scott Renick, Mrs. Samuel Clay and children will leave Thursday for Miami, Fla., for the remainder of the winter.

—Miss Mary Frances Lyons has returned to her home in Louisville, after a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Maria Lyons, and her uncle, Harry Lyons, in this city.

—Richard Alexander, who has been ill for several months at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Anderson, was taken to the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, Saturday, for treatment.

—The following announcements have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson announce the marriage of their daughter, Aleta Dudley, to Mr. Lucien M. Arnsperger, Thursday, the eighth of January, nineteen hundred and twenty, Millersburg, Kentucky."

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Chinn, of near Paris, have taken rooms at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington, for the remainder of the winter. Their son, Burkett C. Chinn, who has been spending his holiday vacation with them, has returned to Yale University to resume his studies.

—The following announcement cards have been issued: Mr. and George Leeds announce the marriage of their daughter, Anna Elizabeth, to Mr. William Long Maupin, Jr., on Wednesday, January seventh, nineteen hundred and twenty. At Home after January fifteenth, 210 West Second Street, Lexington, Kentucky."

—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thompson left Sunday for Frankfort and will join the household of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Adams for the session of the Legislature. Mr. Thompson is the Representative from Bourbon and minority leader of the Democrats. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will spend some of the week-ends at their home, Woodlawn Villa.

—Dennis V. Snapp, Field Secretary of the Epworth League of the Methodist church, returned Sunday afternoon from Hot Springs, Ark., where he had been attending the Midwinter Session of the Conference of Sunday School Board Chairmen and Field Workers of the Methodist church. Mr. Snapp reports a most interesting time and a splendid program. The meetings of the Conference were held in the Central Avenue Methodist Church, one of the finest edifices in the country.

—The collation to be given Thursday by the young ladies will be quite an event in society. Masonic Temple will have the usual holiday decorations and will be more attractive for this event, as it is the first of the Leap year parties. The compliment to the young men will receive its full appreciation. Mrs. Catherine Davis Craig and Mr. Woodford Buckner will lead, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan Bell. Many charming visitors will be in town as guests for the occasion.

—Miss Mildred Collins entertained Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Collins, at the corner of High and Broadway, with a luncheon in honor of the bride, Mrs. William Rodas, Jr., of Lexington. The handsome home was made unusually attractive by the addition of plants and flowers. The guests were: Mrs. William Rodas, Jr., Mrs. Albert Shouse, Mrs. Robert Hawkins, Mrs. Horace Wilson, Mrs. William Rodas, II, Misses Mary E. Sweeney, Elizabeth Rodas, Katherine Christian, Lula Logan, Fannie Ratliff, Eunice Katherine Shouse, Mary Van Meter, Dorothy Middleton, Mary Turner, Mildred Turner, Louise Powell, all of Lexington; Mrs. Dwight Phelps Green, of Chicago; Mrs. Hugh Campbell and Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson, of Paris; Mrs. Eugene Edmunds, of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Thompson Vandoren, of Cynthia.

—Wm. K. Dudley, J. B. Wood, Walter Meng, William Collins and George Clayton will leave to-day to attend the Southern Circuit sales of Duroc-Jersey hogs.

—One of the most attractive visitors in Paris has been Miss Margaret Woods, of West Seventh street, Covington, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whaley, at their home near Paris. Miss Woods concluded her visit here Sunday, returning to her home in Covington.

—Letters from Mrs. L. B. Purnell, who, with her daughter, Miss Rebecca Purnell, is in Sutherland, Fla., for the remainder of the winter, tell of the delightful weather prevailing there. The air is full of a summery softness, and people are sitting on their front porches, while "back home" we are shivering and shaking while the gas bills mount higher and higher.

—Mrs. E. M. Dickson and Mrs. Durand Whipple entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dickson, on Stoner avenue, with a most charming tea to compliment a very recent bride in the family, Mrs. Benjamin Forsyth Buckner, who was the beautiful Elizabeth Blanton, of Richmond, and a niece of Mrs. Dickson. The house was lovely in decorations of pink and white. Carnations and narcissus shed their beauty and fragrance throughout the house. Growing plants decorated the hall and stairway. Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Buckner received the guests in the drawing room, and Mrs. Whipple and Mrs. Joseph Head very graciously received and entertained in the hall. Mrs. James Duncan Bell assisted the hosts in the dining room, serving salad at one end of a beautifully appointed table, and Miss Nancy Griffith served tea at the other. Mrs. James W. Thompson and Miss Caroline Roseberry presided at the punch table. Both were very attractively gowned. Mrs. Buckner, the guest of honor, was beautifully gowned in white satin with overdress of georgette crepe and trimmed in crystal beads, her wedding gown. Mrs. Dickson wore a becoming gown of grey chiffon over the same shade of satin. The guests for the lovely occasion included the young married set and some of the hosts' friends.
